Some of us have problems with education, diseases, abuse, even disabilities.

I am legally blind.

Although it's lonely in the dark abyss, my sensory is enhanced.

I can hear the soft whisper of the wind when I'm inside.

I can smell the beautiful daisies that my mother had worked very hard on yesterday.

I can taste the sweet honeysuckle dripping off its tree.

I cannot sleep.

Now I lay in my bed, clutching my pillow.

After a while of just sitting there, I hop and go outside, along with my mother, so she could describe life.

I wish I could explain how it looks, to see the brilliant colors bouncing around my eyes in a flash, as I see my world of imagination grow bigger, and so I can see my mother and her nice face.

Mother is taking me to school today. She says it is a school for kids like me.

She was always so nervous to bring me to that school. I haven't even gone, since she was so nervous.

Now, I must go.

My new life will begin at this 'School'!
